

Rev. Louis Aloysius Sander

13th State Chaplain of Oregon 1933-37

Louis Aloysius Sander was born April 3, 1895 in Moberly, MO to Joseph and Anna Pferdekamp Sander. The family moved to Tillamock, OR around 1900 where Louis attended school.

He attended Mt. Angel College. Louis took his theology at St. Patrick's Seminary in Menlo Park, CA and was ordained at St. Mary's cathedral in Portland, OR in 1918.

Rev Sander served as pastor of the parish in McMinnville, Portland, Verboort, St. Anthony's in Waldport and Corvallis 1944-46.

As pastor of St. Anthony's he obtained the property for the new church and school.

Rev. Sander was the Oregon Knights of Columbus State Chaplin 1933-37.

Rev. Louis A. Sander died December 13, 1955 in Portland of stomach cancer. He is buried at the Mount Calvary Cemetery in Portland, OR.

"I approve of the resolution adopted outlying the plan of the State Council to assist in the education of young men for the priesthood. I urge that this proposed activity be carried forward to completion and there is hearty approval and support of the hierarchy and clergy in such works of Catholic Action as this." Rev. Louis A. Sander, State Convention, May, 27, 1935, Portland, OR

