

Sweet Home chili, cornbread contest raises $1,250

Knights of Columbus Council 8624 of St. Helen Catholic Church held their annual chili and cornbread cookoff contest on Sunday, Nov. 19 at the church hall. There were eight entries in each category. Nearly 150 people tasted the entries and voted for their favorites. Certificates and prizes went to the champion and runner-up in each category. Admission and contest entries were free. A raffle of donated prizes and the auction of two homemade pies by Carol Burger, brought in about $1,250. The money funds college scholarships for graduating high school seniors, as well as other programs for church youth, family nights and the American Heritage Girls. A special guest and raffle prize winner was K of C State Deputy Kenneth Anderson, who previously served as the local District Deputy.

Chili cookoff winners

